General Armageddon: Putin appoints new commander

The Times, October 10, 2022

EVENT

Russia's biggest missile attack on Ukraine came less than 48 hours after President Putin appointed a notoriously brutal military commander known as General Armageddon to revive the Kremlin's faltering offensive. General Sergei Surovikin was named on Saturday as Russia's first overall commander for the war, giving him total control over Putin's forces in Ukraine. His appointment came hours after a huge explosion partially destroyed a vital 12-mile bridge linking Russia to the annexed Crimean peninsula. Putin described the blast as an act of terrorism carried out by Ukrainian special forces. Surovikin, 55, oversaw the destruction of Aleppo in 2016, when Syrian government forces retook the city with the support of Russian airstrikes. Human rights groups accused him of using banned cluster munitions and incendiary weapons. The bombardment of Aleppo became known as one of the most brutal in the war with more than 600 civilians killed, including dozens of children.

COMMENT

General Sergei Surovikin is known as General Armageddon. He is a brutal and corrupt man. He earned fearsome reputation in 2017 in Syria by indiscriminately bombing Aleppo. It was this General in particular that helped Putin prop up the regime of his Syrian ally Bashar al-Assad. His appointment has delighted hardliners in Russia, many of whom had been openly scathing of Putin's handling of the war. We don't know what comes next in Ukraine but with this ruthless General in charge it could get even worse. The Bible says that the latter day Antiochus Epiphanes spoken of in Daniel 8 will cause "shocking destruction." If Putin is this latter day ruler, by appointing "General Armageddon" he moves us one step closer to actual Armageddon coming to this world.

BIBLE QUOTE

And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon. And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done.; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great. (Revelation 16:16-18)

UN General Assembly condemns Russia annexation

BBC, October 14, 2022

EVENT

The United Nations General Assembly has voted overwhelmingly to condemn Russia's attempts to annex four regions of Ukraine. The resolution was supported by 143 countries, while 35 states - including China and India - abstained. As well as Russia, four countries rejected the vote, namely Belarus, North Korea, Syria and Nicaragua. Although symbolic, it was the highest number of votes against Russia since the invasion. Last week, in a grand ceremony in the Kremlin, President Vladimir Putin signed documents to make the eastern Ukrainian regions of Luhansk, Donetsk, Zaporizhzhia and Kherson part of Russia. The agreements were signed with the Moscow-installed leaders of the four regions, and came after self-proclaimed referendums in the areas that were denounced as a "sham" by the West. The resolution calls on the international community not to recognise any of Russia's annexation claims and demands its "immediate reversal"

COMMENT

On face value this looks like Russia is almost entirely isolated. But actually the 35 states who abstained (nations sitting on the fence) account for almost 50% of the world's population and are mainly in central Asia and Africa. Having said that only 4 nations rejected condemning Russia for its invasion of Ukraine. Belarus,, which is considered a satellite state of its neighbour and ally. North Korea which again is a satellite of Russia – the North v South Korea is part of the original Cold War (Russia v USA) standoff. Nicaragua in South America has close ties with Russia. And that just leaves Syria. Syria is now a satellite of Russia as well. Russia stepped in and saved the Assad regime in 2015 and has since developed many bases in Syria. Antiochus Epiphanes was based in Syria and so the ancient king of the north is backing the new king of the north (Russia).

BIBLE QUOTE

And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. The king of fierce countenance is symbolically related to the king of ancient times – Antiochus Epiphanes...king of Seleucids in Syria; not "little horn" which was Macedonia / Eastern Rome Empire / Turkey] - ET (Daniel 8:23)

Abbas praises Russia's support for Palestinians in Putin meeting

I24 News, October 13, 2022

EVENT

Palestinian Authority President Mahmoud Abbas on Thursday briefed Russian President Vladimir Putin on "Israeli violations" while praising Moscow's support for the Palestinian cause, the PA's Wafa news agency reported. The two leaders are in the country's capital Astana (previously Nur-Sultan) for the sixth Summit of the Conference on Interaction and Confidence Building Measures in Asia. Their meeting on the sidelines of the summit comes amid increasing tensions in the West Bank and east Jerusalem as Israel searches for the suspects allegedly responsible for the recent shooting deaths of two Israeli soldiers. Abbas reportedly told Putin of the "army siege imposed on the cities, refugee camps, and towns, particularly on Shufat refugee camp, Nablus, and Jerusalem." The pair also discussed regional and international issues and ways to increase bilateral ties between Moscow and Ramallah.

COMMENT

This week President Putin met President Abbas (Palestinian leader) on the sidelines of a summit in Kazakhstan, on Thursday. Abbas reiterated his mistrust of the United States in resolving the conflict with Israel and expressed appreciation for Russia's role. "We don't trust America and you know our position. We don't trust it, we don't rely on it, and under no circumstances can we accept that America is the sole party in resolving a problem," Abbas told Putin. Abbas is asking for Putin to be involved in the region to help with the increasing tensions in the region. In Ezekiel 38:8 we read that Gog (AKA Putin?) will be "visited". It does mean be to be "visited". It also means to be "sought after", "required", "needed", "appointed", "mustered". Abbas at this "visit" was asking for all these things. He needs Russia to be central to the Palestinian conflict...

BIBLE QUOTE

After many days thou shalt be visited: in the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sword, and is gathered out of many people, against the mountains of Israel, which have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall dwell safely all of them. [A long time from now you will be called into action. In the distant future you will swoop down on the land of Israel... - NLT] - ET

Putin offers to make Turkey capital of Russian gas supply to the world

The Times, October 13, 2022

EVENT

Brussels on Thursday accused Vladimir Putin of using his “dirty fossil fuels as a geopolitical weapon” after Moscow offered to make Turkey an international “gas hub” by redirecting energy deliveries away from the EU. The Russian president suggested he could make Ankara a platform for regulating soaring gas prices when he met his Turkish counterpart Recep Tayyip Erdogan during talks in Kazakhstan. But analysts warned the offer was a ploy to pull Mr Erdogan, who has carved out a mediation role between Kyiv and Moscow, into his sphere of influence and away from the EU and Nato. “Turkey has turned out to be the most reliable route for deliveries today, even to Europe. We could consider the possibility of creating a gas hub in Turkey for supplies to other countries,” the Russian leader told Mr Erdogan at a face-to-face meeting in Astana. Mr Erdogan did not respond to Mr Putin’s offer during the televised portion of their meeting, but Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov claimed both men had ordered a rapid and detailed examination of the idea.

COMMENT

Turkey already has a Russian gas pipeline supplying Europe, as well as another pipeline from Azerbaijan and links with Iran. Russia is now wanting to use Turkey as its backdoor route into the EU. If Russia sends its gas to Turkey then it would be Turkey supplying the EU. Analysts have warned that opening up new Turkish supply routes to Europe would make it easier for Russia to turn off the taps to Ukraine before winter. Turkey has proposed hosting peace talks involving Russia and the West. Turkey is becoming an integral part of Russian strategy and Putin wants Turkey as an ally. But It won’t be easy. The Bible says that Togarmah (Turkey) will be a forced ally of the K of N when it invades Israel.

BIBLE QUOTE

...the king of the north shall come against him (the house of Togarmah) like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; (Dan_11:40)
Gomer, and all his bands; the house of Togarmah of the north quarters, and all his bands: and many people with thee. Be thou prepared, and prepare for thyself, thou, and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them. (Ezekiel 38:6-7)

Greece Says It's Open to Talks with Turkey Once Provocations End

VOA October 3, 2022

EVENT

Greece wants to have a constructive dialogue with Turkey based on international law but its Aegean neighbor must halt its unprecedented escalation of provocations, the Greek foreign minister said Sunday. The two countries — North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) allies but historic foes — have been at odds for decades over a range of issues, including where their continental shelves start and end, overflights in the Aegean Sea and a divided Cyprus. "It is up to Turkey to choose if it will come to such a dialogue or not, but the basic ingredient must be a de-escalation," Nikos Dendias told the... newspaper in an interview. Last month, the European Union voiced concern over statements by Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan accusing Greece, an EU member, of occupying demilitarized islands in the Aegean and saying Turkey was ready to "do what is necessary" when the time came. "The one responsible for a de-escalation is the one causing the escalation, which is Turkey," Dendias said

COMMENT

Relative to the other skirmishes going on in the world, this seems relatively mild. However, this is a disagreement between two NATO countries, which complicates things for other NATO nations like the US to take sides. Turkey holds a lot of political capital with its posture as a negotiator between Russia and Ukraine, and control of the Bosphorus. One of the points of disagreement in the NATO circle is over Cyprus - rich in gas & oil resources and a US army base is also located there. Turkey has threatened going to war with Greece over this. Turkey is also at odds with Russia over Syria and Libya. Bearing in mind that Istanbul (formerly Constantinople and the base of the Greco-Roman military power) is the placeholder for the power that assumes that position at the time of the end, against which the "K of N" comes as a whirlwind, I submit that this little detail bears watching.

BIBLE QUOTE

And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

(Daniel 11:40)

Russia's religious war in Ukraine

Christian Science Monitor, October 3, 2022

EVENT

In its military struggle to hold eastern Ukraine – by force and illegal annexation – Russia has also launched a campaign to ensure support from the dominant faith of Russian-speaking people. It is throwing money into the region through various pro-Kremlin organizations – with the largest recipient being the Russian Orthodox Church and its charities. Since the takeover of Crimea in 2014, President Vladimir Putin has relied heavily on the church's hierarchy to support his efforts to expand the borders of Russia by force and, lately, in the conscription of young men to fight in Ukraine. At the same time, Russian forces have destroyed more than 200 facilities of other religions in Ukraine – churches, mosques, synagogues – since the war began in February, according to Ukrainian officials. The Kremlin's main target for destruction is the Orthodox Church of Ukraine. It gained independence from the Russian Orthodox Church in 2019. That split, said Mr. Putin, was a weapon of “mass destruction” against Russian identity. “Our spiritual unity has also been attacked,” he wrote.

COMMENT

This is an often overlooked motivation behind Russia's invasion of Ukraine. Eastern Greek Orthodoxy is divided into two primacies 1) the Patriarchate of Constantinople, with 220 m of the Greek Orthodox faith, & 2) the Russian Greek Orthodox Primacy in Moscow with 90 m followers. In 2019 the Ukraine Orthodox Church of Kiev organized under the patriarchate of Constantinople, & Putin has been on a heightened warpath ever since. The independency of the Russian Church primacy based in Kiev initially was established during the reign of Peter the Great in the 1700's, transferred by the Ottomans. Peter the Great took over full control & the Patriarchate was later moved to Moscow. Will Gog have designs of coming down on Constantinople "like a whirlwind" with the "hook" being to unite the great orthodox primacies with 300 million or so and establish its patriarchate in Jerusalem?

BIBLE QUOTE

I will lead thee away enticingly, and put hooks into thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all thine army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts of armour, even a great gathered host with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords:
...the king of the north shall come against him (Constantinople) like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships;
(Ezek 38:4; Dan 11:40)

How the West is preparing for Putin to go nuclear

The Times, October 15, 2022

EVENT

Western countries are making contingency plans to deal with chaos at home in case of nuclear war in Ukraine, officials said yesterday, as the threat of a battlefield strike by President Putin grew. The measures could include issuing leaflets on how to survive a nuclear attack or ways to ease panic buying amid fears the fallout could reach western Europe and beyond. President Putin's threats to use nuclear weapons in recent weeks have sent alarm bells ringing across Nato, with the alliance engaging in discussions behind closed doors as to how it will respond to such an eventuality. Some observers now believe there is a realistic prospect of the Russian leader using a tactical nuclear weapon against Ukraine, either on land or firing it into the Black Sea. Asked if there were contingency plans in place to deal with the fallout of a strike in the West, such as a way or dealing with panic buying or distributing booklets on how to survive a nuclear attack, a western official said: "As you would expect the government is conducting prudent planning for a range of possible scenarios of which that is one."

COMMENT

We don't know if Putin will use a nuclear weapon in Ukraine – but the possibility cannot be ruled out. We know that Putin will one day descend into Israel with all his forces. But currently his forces are tied up in Ukraine. This means that it is likely / probable that the Ukraine war will be resolved to some extent. But what would bring about some resolution? The atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki ended World War II. It could be that history repeats itself and Putin uses "shocking destruction" to achieve an end to the war and a negotiated way out. The Bible tells us Putin will soon focus south...

BIBLE QUOTE

He will cause a shocking amount of destruction and succeed in everything he does. He will destroy powerful leaders and devastate the holy people. He will be a master of deception and will become arrogant; he will destroy many without warning.

The UK's Crisis Is Threatening the Global Inflation Fight

Bloomberg, October 14, 2022

EVENT The deadline is almost here. Britain's central bank has dug in its heels and insisted that its rescue mission for the nation's pension system, and for its huge "gilt-edged" bond market, is about to end. Britain's sudden descent into crisis only days after Queen Elizabeth II was laid to rest has already devoured the credibility of several of the most important institutions in national life, including the prime minister, the Treasury, the Bank of England, the Conservative Party, and the nation's asset management industry. Once lost, credibility is hard to restore, and so the issues confronting the UK look profound. But the implications spread much further than British shores. Bond prices in countries as different as the US and Italy have veered in response to each fresh move in gilts, and each news story out of Britain.

COMMENT Britain is in deep political crisis. In just the past 4 months the UK has had no less than 4 Chancellors of the Exchequer. This is the UK's government's chief finance minister. He is responsible for fiscal and monetary policy. The last chancellor was sacked after just 38 days. This turmoil hit Britain just days after the Queen died. But it isn't just Britain. The world is in deep financial trouble and Britain has ended up being the epicentre. What is happening in the UK has great risk of spreading around the world. And in fact it already has. The cost of government borrowing has increased in other nations on the back of the UK financial crisis. Isaiah 23v6 to the end is all about latter day Tyre (London). We are told that London's wealth will "NOT be treasured or laid up." Isaiah 24 explains what happens to wealth - it is destroyed. All financial systems of the world totally collapse.

BIBLE QUOTE Look! The Lord is about to destroy the earth and make it a vast wasteland. He devastates the surface of the earth and scatters the people. Priests and laypeople, servants and masters, maids and mistresses, buyers and sellers, lenders and borrowers, bankers and debtors—none will be spared. The earth will be completely emptied and looted. The Lord has spoken! (Isaiah 24:1-3 NLT)
