Hello everyone!

I can taste the anticipation! Only 50 hours 'til the dwelling in tents begins! I hope everyone's travel is going well, and your studies are wrapped up and brimming over with juicy facts and enthusiasm for Abram's life! I can't wait to hear what you've found out. I've attached a schedule that we'll try to go by. I know it's camp, and unexpected things will come up, but this timetable is our aim.

Bro Regan, if you don't mind, please forward this schedule on to the ecclesia. We'd love to have some company for the readings each night, and have folks see the camp! There's a map showing where we're camped attached. It's not too rough getting there in a truck or SUV, except for the last 100 yards, which you can just park at the bottom of and walk.
Thanks, Regan! (and we'll see you Saturday)

Looking forward to seeing you all, soon! 12:30 pm in the old Florence place yard (1 mile due east from Dan and Sandy's, at the bottom of the steep hill).
Much love,
Glendon
