Proof of biblical kings of Israel, Judah deciphered on Jerusalem rock inscriptions

Jerusalem Post, December 17, 2022

EVENT

An Israeli ancient history professor says his recent translation of inscriptions describing the works of biblical Judean King Hezekiah in Jerusalem's City of David is "one of the most important archaeological discoveries in Israel of all time." The inscriptions took more than 10 years for two scientists to decipher after they began to examine a stone tablet which was discovered during excavations in the City of David National Park in 2007. Professor Gershon Galil...found that the 8th Century BC inscriptions...not only include Hezekiah's name, but also list his achievements from the first 17 years of his reign.

Those include his commission to carve out the pool at Siloam and the tunnel to access the waters underneath the Gihon Spring. The action is believed to have helped saved the city by denying sources of water to the Assyrian King Sennacherib when he attempted to take over the city, as described in the Bible.

In the race to preempt Sennacherib, Judean workmen dug the Siloam Tunnel from both ends and met in the middle. Also listed on the newly deciphered inscriptions were references to reform of Jewish rituals and the conquering of Philistia.

Galil explained, "These are the most complete royal inscriptions we have, and they are further evidence that the kings of Israel and Judah wrote royal inscriptions that indicated their name and deeds."

What does the ancient biblical inscription say?

This is a verbatim quote of the inscription that includes 11 lines, 64 words, and 243 letters:

BIBLE QUOTE

"And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem, He took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the fountains which were without the city: and they did help him. So there was gathered much people together, who stopped all the fountains, and the brook that ran through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water?" (2 Chronicles 32:2-4)

Proof of biblical kings of Israel, Judah deciphered on Jerusalem rock inscriptions

Jerusalem Post, December 17, 2022

EVENT

“Hezekiah, the son of Ahaz, king of Judah, made the pool and the conduit.

In the seventeenth year, in the second (day), in the fourth (month), of king Hezekiah, the king brought the water into the city by a tunnel, the king led the water into the pool. He smote the Philistines from Ekron to Gaza and placed there the OREB unit of the army of Judah. He brake the images and brake in pieces the Nehushtan and he removed the high places and cut down the Asherah. Hezekiah, the king, accumulated in all his treasure houses and in the house of YHWH a lot of silver and gold, perfumes and good ointment.”

(Professor Galil)... also commented on the age of the inscriptions, perhaps of even greater significance than their content.

“These are actually the earliest manuscripts of the Bible. They predate the Ketef Hinnom silver amulets (containing script from the book of Numbers) by about 100 years and the Dead Sea Scrolls by hundreds of years. They also support the claim that scriptures in the Book of Kings are based on texts originating from chronicles and royal inscriptions and that the Bible reflects historical reality and not imagination,” Galil said.’

The professor is convinced the inscriptions show the exact date of the pool and tunnel projects’ completion, which would have been the 2nd of the month of Tamuz on the Jewish calendar, in the year 709, BC.

BIBLE QUOTE

He removed the high places, and brake the images, and cut down the groves, and brake in pieces the brasen serpent that Moses had made: for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it: and he called it Nehushtan. He smote the Philistines, even unto Gaza, and the borders thereof, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city. 2Ki 18:4,8

Hezekiah shewed them all the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: . 2Ki 20:13

The “El Arish Stone” – Proof of Exodus

Torah Archeology

EVENT

The present instability in Egypt once again puts a question mark over the archaeology of the country. Over the years, the rulers of Egypt have attempted to control the past by controlling what archaeologists say, hiding finds in the bowels of the Cairo Museum and, in the case of the legendary city of Avaris, forcing the lead archaeologist, Manfred Bietak, to cover his site every year.

Almost forgotten, in the tiny museum of Isma'ilya, some 125 km northeast of Cairo, is an artifact that corroborates the Biblical Exodus. The museum curator does not realize its significance. It's known as the “El Arish Stone”.

It is a piece of black granite weighing two tons, measuring 4 feet in length, and 2.5 feet in width. It was found in 1887 on a farm at El Arish, lying on its side. At the time, it was being used as a water trough for cattle.

When archaeologist Frances Llewellyn Griffith found the slab of granite, his clue to its value was the hieroglyphics. The inscriptions appear to tell the story of the Exodus, but with a twist: this story is told from Pharaoh's point of view.

The black granite inscription corroborates the story of the parting of the sea, as told in Exodus 14.

There is a unique hieroglyph on it: three waves and two knives.

Searching for a way to translate this symbol, Griffith rendered it as “whirlpool”. But Egyptologist James Hoffmeier has suggested that we look at the hieroglyphic literally. Seen in this way, the obvious translation is the “parting of the sea” or the “parted sea”.

BIBLE QUOTE

And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash herself at the river; and her maidens walked along by the river's side; and when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it. And when she had opened it, she saw the child: and, behold, the babe wept. And she had compassion on him, and said, This is one of the Hebrews' children. Then said his sister to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call to thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee? And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the maid went and called the child's mother. And Pharaoh's daughter said unto her, Take this child away, and nurse it for me, and I will give thee thy wages. And the woman took the child, and nursed it. Exo 2:5-9

The “El Arish Stone” – Proof of Exodus

Torah Archeology

EVENT

Because the El Arish stone was being used for water for cattle, some of the inscriptions have been eroded, leaving the ones on the right and back sides of the monument mostly intact. In all, 74 lines are still legible. One line seems to be referencing Moses: he is referred to as the “Prince of the Desert” and his Israelite followers are called the “evil ones” or “evil-doers”. The Egyptian text also tells about how Pharaoh chased the Queen Mother, Tefnut, presumably the royal princess that once raised Moses, as she was leaving with the departing Israelites. This corroborates the Talmud \(Sotah 12a\) which states that the princess left on the Exodus, marrying the Israelite leader, Caleb son of Yefuneh. 1Ch 4:18 The stone also seems to be reporting some of the Biblical plagues, including prolonged darkness and a terrible tempest. Furthermore, it mentions a specific location next to where the sea parted. The place is called “Pekharti”.

In the Book of Exodus 14:2,9, it is called “Pi-hahiroth”. If all this is not enough the Torah states that, as he was dying, the Biblical patriarch Jacob/Israel blessed his son Joseph wishing for Joseph’s children to “fishify” i.e., that they “increase in the land like fish”. For this blessing, he made up a new word; “fishify”, “dgh” in Hebrew (Genesis 48:16). Later, when the Israelites are leaving on the Exodus they take the bones of Joseph with them to the Promised Land (Exodus 13:19). Shockingly, the El Arish stone says that when the “evildoers” (Israelites) left Egypt, they took “Dagai” with them. The exact nickname given by the Torah to Joseph!

BIBLE QUOTE

The Angel which redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them grow (dgh) into a multitude in the midst of the earth. Gen 48:16

Speak unto the children of Israel, that they turn and encamp before Pihahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, ... But the Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army, and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pihahiroth, before Baalzephon. Exo 14:2,9

And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him: for he had straitly sworn the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you; and ye shall carry up my bones away hence with you. Exo 13:19

Sunak 'increasingly concerned' about Iran's behaviour as he lists foreign threats

Daily Telegraph, December 20, 2022

EVENT

Rishi Sunak has said he is “increasingly concerned” about Iran’s behaviour and suggested it could become one of the UK’s biggest foreign policy threats in the coming months. He cited Iran’s nuclear programme and their “destabilising” impact on the region, as well as the treatment of their own citizens. The Prime Minister made the remarks during his first appearance before the liaison committee, which is made up of select committee chairs. He told MPs: "Whilst Russia and Ukraine remain our number one foreign policy challenge as we go into the new year, I am increasingly concerned about Iran's behaviour, the treatment of their citizens, what they're doing in the region which is destabilising, and indeed the nuclear programme. So I think it is something we will need to spend an increasing amount of time on as we go forward." Britain has unleashed a wave of sanctions on Iran in response to its brutal crackdown on the protests that erupted after the death in custody of 22-year-old Mahsa Amini.

COMMENT

On Tuesday president Biden was caught on camera admitting that the Iran nuclear deal is "dead", in a clear sign that Washington has privately abandoned hopes of restoring the pact. On Wednesday the UK prime minister Rishi Sunak warned that Iran could soon become one of the UK’s biggest threats. This time last year we had warnings of Russia about to invade Ukraine. This time we have warnings about Iran. If the Iran deal is indeed dead then it is very likely Iran will strike back in retaliation. It also has pressure from protests that continue across the country. A war with Israel might divert attention. The Bible says Iran will block the Hormuz Strait stopping 20% of the world’s oil supply. It will also activate its proxy armies to start the inner ring war around Israel.

BIBLE QUOTE

The burden of the desert of the sea [Persian Gulf]. As whirlwinds in the south pass through; so it cometh from the desert, from a terrible land. A grievous vision is declared unto me; the treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler spoileth. Go up, O Elam [Iran]: besiege, O Media [Iran]; all the sighing thereof have I made to cease. (Isaiah 21:1-2)

Netanyahu announces his 6th government, Israel's most hardline ever

The Times of Israel, December 21, 2022

EVENT

Benjamin Netanyahu informed President Isaac Herzog late on Wednesday that he has come to agreements with his coalition partners to form Israel's 37th government, delivering a promise of right-wing and religious-led political stability seven weeks after the country's fifth election since 2019 and minutes before the expiration of his mandate to form the next government. Netanyahu will have seven days to swear in his government. Some Likud party sources say this is likely to happen before the January 2 deadline. Israel's largest party and a right-wing powerhouse, Likud will be on the left flank of the prime minister-designate's incoming coalition. Far-right Otzma Yehudit, Religious Zionism and Noam, as well as Netanyahu's long-time ultra-Orthodox partners Shas and United Torah Judaism, round out the 64-seat majority coalition in Israel's 120-member Knesset.

COMMENT

Netanyahu's partners have driven a hard bargain in coalition negotiations. Smaller parties have secured far-reaching policy and appointment concessions that will drive judicial reform, retroactively legalise and expand settlements and expand religious influence over state and social institutions. The most contentious for Israel will be the expansion of West Bank settlements. There may even be some provocative moves around Temple Mount with visits planned by new "hardline" ministers. All this means that Israel could very quickly be in the news. Iran could use these events to initiate the initial inner ring war around Israel that we know must come before Russia descends. 2023 could see further destabilisation of the world in the very area we know it will....

BIBLE QUOTE

On that day I will make the clans of Judah like a flame that sets a woodpile ablaze or like a burning torch among sheaves of grain. They will burn up all the neighboring nations right and left, while the people living in Jerusalem remain secure. Notice that it is the "neighbouring nations" that are destroyed and Jerusalem is safe. This is the inner ring war... (Zechariah 12:6 NLT)

World order on verge of cliff - first Israeli national intel assessment

Jerusalem Post, December 19, 2022

EVENT

The world is at a transition point analogous to being on the verge of a cliff, after which a series of crises striking simultaneously will reorder the planet's geopolitics, the place of technology, the economic order and a variety of other disciplines from health to energy, according to Israel's first government national intelligence estimate. The report was published by the Intelligence Ministry in the vein of the type of reports issued in the United States and other Western countries. A copy was obtained by The Jerusalem Post. According to the report, the world is on the verge of a cliff and is likely to be struck by a variety of crises affecting all aspects of life. Recommendations from a team of eight experts who wrote the report addressed all critical areas related to national power and resilience, including, but going far beyond, mere military power. These recommendations focused on advancing key geopolitical alliances, serving as a geopolitical and technological bridge between countries and filling potential gaps in national resilience.

COMMENT

The report also recognised a major change in Israel's status. It has evolved from an energy-weak to energy independent country with the find – in recent decades – of natural gas in its maritime coastal areas. This is almost certainly part of the reason Gog (Russian ruler) decides to descend into Israel to “take a spoil”. Part of the energy Russia is losing from the EU is to be replaced by Israel and Egypt sending gas directly to the EU. Putin will see Israel and Egypt as stealing its own market. The world is indeed on the edge of a cliff. 2023 could be even more tumultuous. Once the contractions of labour have begun for a woman they don't stop - they get ever worse and ever closer together....

BIBLE QUOTE

Whenever a woman is in labour she has pain, because her hour has come; but when she gives birth to the child, she no longer remembers the anguish because of the joy that a child has been born into the world. As well as John 16:21 also see Isaiah 13:8, Jeremiah 49:24, Isaiah 21:3, Matthew 24:8, Mark 13:8, 1 Thessalonians 5:3, Romans 8:22 and many more.... (John 16:21)

Biden invokes Hanukkah story during DC meeting with Ukraine's Zelensky

Jewish Telegraph Agency, December 21, 2022

EVENT

During a closely-watched press conference with Ukraine's Jewish president, Volodymyr Zelensky, President Joe Biden brought up the Hanukkah story, comparing Ukraine's struggle against Russia to the Maccabees' uprising. "Tonight is the fourth night of Hanukkah," Biden said Wednesday standing next to Zelensky, who was on a last-minute visit to Washington to speak to Congress and appeal for the approval of more assistance for Ukraine. It was Zelensky's first foreign trip since the start of Russia's invasion in February. "A time when Jewish people around the world, President Zelensky and many families among them, honor the timeless miracle of a small band of warriors fighting for the values and their freedom against a much larger foe and how they endured and how they overcame," Biden continued. "How the flame of faith with only enough oil for one day burned brightly for eight days. The story of survival and resilience that reminds us on the coldest day of the year, that light will always prevail over darkness." It was a message that Zelensky himself struck in a message to Ukrainians just before the start of the holiday on Sunday. "Congratulations to the Jewish community of Ukraine and all the Jews of the world on Hanukkah. Those who were outnumbered defeated those who outnumbered them. Light defeated darkness. It will be the same this time," he said at the end of a longer video update about the status of the war. He finished in Hebrew: "Chag Hanukkah Sameach." Biden's comments echoed a comparison between Zelensky and Judah Maccabee, the hero of the Hanukkah story, that emerged early on in Ukraine's defensive war.

COMMENT

The next slide looks at the remarkable significance of Hannukah in relation to current events and how amazing it is that Biden referred to it during Zelensky's visit to the US.

BIBLE QUOTE

He said to me, "It will take 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be reconsecrated." 2300 evenings and mornings = 1150 or just over 3 years. It was the same time period from when Antiochus Epiphanes stopped all temple worship (and setup an idol to Zeus) to when the Maccabees rededicated the temple to God. (Daniel 8:14)

Biden invokes Hanukkah story during DC meeting with Ukraine's Zelensky

Jewish Telegraph Agency, December 21, 2022

COMMENT President Biden talked of Hannukah at the close of his speech with president Zelensky stood next to him at the White House. Biden directly linked the Russian invasion to an ancient battle long ago where a small group of Jews overthrew a “a much larger enemy” and won. So what is Hannukah and what battle is it about? It is all about the defeat of Antiochus Epiphanes! The Seleucid ruler who the Bible calls “the king of the north”. Antiochus stopped Jews from worshipping God and stopped all worship at the Temple. He even had a pig sacrificed on the altar in God’s temple and setup a huge idol statue of Zeus there. He slaughtered many thousands of Jews. All this happened in the 2nd century BCE. An uprising then began by a few Jews called the Maccabees. They successfully fought back against the army of Antiochus (although vastly outnumbered). Eventually they cast down the idol in the temple and after purifying the temple they reinstated Temple worship once again. Hannukah remembers this rededication of the Temple and the miraculous way the menorah burned for 8 nights with only 1 nights oil. We have been showing in the WWW that Putin himself is the latter day Antiochus Epiphanes. The US President (without really knowing it) is linking Putin to Epiphanes as well! Daniel 8 speaks of all these events. It speaks of the temple worship being “cast down” - this literally means “to abandon something”. The person who “cast down” temple worship we are told is a ruler (a little horn) that came out of one of the 4 generals who took over from Alexander the Great. That ruler was Antiochus Epiphanes. Biden (modern king of the south) is therefore warning us of the new king of the north....

BIBLE QUOTE

And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land. Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down [\[abandoned not destroyed – this is NOT AD70!\]](#) (Daniel 8:9+11)

US sending Patriots to Ukraine under $1.85B aid package

Associated Press, December 21, 2022

Ukraine Towers Over Other Recipients of U.S. Military Aid
U.S. military assistance to Ukraine in 2022 compared with that to top recipients in 2020

EVENT

The Biden administration announced Wednesday that it will provide $1.85 billion in military aid to Ukraine, rolling out funding for a Patriot missile battery as Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy arrived in Washington for his first known trip out of his country since Russia invaded in February. The White House announcement came just hours before Zelenskyy landed at Joint Base Andrews, just outside the capital. The package includes $1 billion in weapons and equipment from Pentagon stocks, including the Patriot battery for the first time, and $850 million in funding through the Ukraine Security Assistance Initiative. Part of the USAI will be used to fund a satellite communications system, which likely will include the crucial SpaceX Starlink satellite network system owned by Elon Musk. "As Russia continues its brutal attacks against critical infrastructure in Ukraine, the United States welcomes President Volodymyr Zelenskyy to Washington, D.C. today to underscore our enduring commitment to the people of Ukraine," Secretary of State Antony Blinken said in a statement.

COMMENT

In 2022, the Biden administration and the U.S. Congress have directed nearly $50 billion in assistance to Ukraine, which includes humanitarian, financial, and military support. Nearly half the total amount was for military support. The vast list of equipment is astonishing. This week another $1.85 billion was announced but it is the most controversial as this includes Patriot missiles by far the most deadly and accurate that have been sent to Ukraine so far. Congress is due to sign off a further $45 billion for Ukraine in the coming weeks. All of this is part of the military provocation (or push) of the king of the south against the king of the north. It precedes the invasion of Israel....

BIBLE QUOTE

And at the time of the end shall the king of the south [US/UK] push at him {Gog}: and the king of the north [Russia] shall come against him [king of the south] like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

(Daniel 11:40)

Russia Issues Dire Warning Over Ukraine's Fate if U.S. Delivers Weapons

Newsweek, December 21, 2022

EVENT

Russia on Wednesday warned that deliveries of American weapons to Ukraine will lead to an escalation of the conflict in the war-torn country. "The supply of arms [by Washington] continues, the range of supplied weapons is expanding. All this, of course, leads to an aggravation of the conflict and, in fact, this does not bode well for Ukraine," Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov told reporters. Peskov was responding to a question about whether the Kremlin expects any negative consequences to come out from Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky's visit to the United States on Wednesday. The Kremlin has repeatedly accused the United States and other members of the NATO military alliance of becoming involved in the conflict by sending Ukraine weapons, providing its troops with training, and assisting with military intelligence.

COMMENT

Russian Foreign Ministry spokeswoman Maria Zakharova separately issued a warning on December 15 over the proposed transfer of Patriot missile defense systems to Ukraine. Zakharova, citing experts, said that possible deliveries of the systems from Washington to Kyiv could escalate the conflict. Neither side are backing down. America continues to boost military supplies and Russia continues its onslaught. So how does this situation resolve? What we know for certain is that Russia will one day invade Israel and Egypt. It is highly unlikely they would fight 2 major wars at once. Therefore logic says that the Ukraine war will come to some standoff, or tense truce. As long as Putin has control over the Donbas region of Ukraine he can declare victory. This area corresponds exactly to part of the ancient territory of Magog. But what will bring about the truce? Russia may use limited nuclear weapons to force negotiations...

BIBLE QUOTE

a fierce king, a master of intrigue, will rise to power. He will become very strong, but not by his own power. He will cause a shocking amount of destruction and succeed in everything he does. He will destroy powerful leaders and devastate the holy people. He will be a master of deception and will become arrogant; he will destroy many without warning. (Daniel 8:23-25 NLT)
